Message from the President:

Last week I had an interview on KCME radio for the “Culture Zone “ program airing last Sunday, May 27. I was pitching our June show and the history of PLAG. We are going to try to get the interview on our website.

Also I have planned a wonderful field trip for the membership on Monday, June 11 at 10am, we'll be touring the El Pomar mansion down by the Broadmoor. This was the Penrose home and it's a beautiful estate which houses a fantastic private art collection. We will be the only scheduled tour that morning. More details at our membership meeting Saturday June 9. El Pomar is on 1661 Mesa Ave 80906 see their website.

I hope to see you all at our June 1st opening and hopefully meeting this years Scholarship Winners.

See you there,
Jim

Reminder to All PLAG Members!
Your presence is requested for the Early Color Splash Reception with the Sponsors at 5:30.

Member News:

From Susan Arnold

June's program will take place at Nancy Moeglein's house on Thursday, June 14th, from 6-8 p.m. This is a chance to meet all of us, bring some art work (whatever) to show off or get a gentle critique on. Bring a snack to share, and whatever you want to drink (soda, wine, etc). This is a chance for us to socialize without being in a rush at the meetings. Nancy's address is 19395 Wildwood Way, Monument. Phone 719-591-0506 if you need directions.

From Lynn Roth

Here is an article to share from Red Dot that was referenced in the Saturday meeting, an interesting read.

Working Alone. Breaking the Isolation that can surround the pursuit of art., a new post on the PLAG website

Thanks for your patience!

 Submitted by Carolyn Stolz, Treasurer

A motion was made by Marci Edwards and seconded by Irmi Knoth to accept the report as presented. Motion carried.

Old Business:

Jim reported that, due to a variety of complications involving the laddered CD, he made the decision to invest the $20,000 in a 27-month CD with 1% interest. It is invested with Community Banks of Colorado (formerly People's Bank)—the institution that handles other PLAG accounts.

Gallery Committee:

Susie Arnold reported:

- Volunteers are needed to sign up as greeters and hangers for the June show.

- Five community organizations have signed on as show sponsors. In addition, Irmie Knoth has contributed funds for two Peoples' Choice Awards and Jim Sawatzki will provide an additional sponsorship. Other sponsorships are pending to date.
- Susie reminded members of the special Sponsors' Reception to be held at 5:30 before the general opening. She encouraged members to meet, greet and thank sponsors at that time. Likewise, she reminded members to honor the scholarship winners at this reception.
- Jim announced that he will provide publicity on KCME's Culture Zone

Future Programming:

- The art classes at the Monument Library have been very well-received. It is expected that they will resume in the fall.
- June 14 (Thursday) PLAG will have a social gathering at the home of Nancy Moeglein
- July's PLAG potluck will be hosted by Bob and Diane Zettler
- August's program will be provided by Sandy Mileski
- November's program will be provided by John DeFrancesco
- May of 2019 PLAG will welcome a former scholarship winner, Carrie Ann (Jones)Baade
- Susie Arnold encouraged members to contribute other ideas for future programming

A motion to adjourn was made by Donna Arndt and seconded by Marci Edwards that the meeting be adjourned at 10:15. Motion carried.

Program:

Joseph Bohler provided an interesting program that outlined what he looks for when judging an art show.
