To Whom This May Concern,

I am writing this letter on behalf of Avery Burson. I have had the pleasure of knowing Avery for the past year and a half as a student of mine in Painting and AP Art. She only started taking art classes in 11th grade. But in that time, Avery has truly dedicated herself to our art program taking as many art classes as possible. This shows me her true willingness to better her craft and desire to be a great artist.

Dedication to craft is a significant quality of Avery's. This is seen not only in the art room, but also in her dance studio. Avery is a dedicated dancer and has been perfecting her craft in dance for the past 4 years. This extracurricular activity has not only taught her how to work hard, but it has also inspired her to work with others. In her studio, she gets the opportunity to assist younger members and be a mentor in their training.

If you ask me a few words to describe Avery, I would choose motivated and appreciative. Each day she shows up and is always appreciative of every opportunity to create. She is motivated to do a good job and takes direction and suggestions to heart. She puts in the time to make her goals happen.

Avery eagerly awaits the next chapter in her life. Her dedication, creativity, and willingness to learn will serve her well in college. I am proud to call her one of my students. She is a great candidate for this scholarship. Should any questions arise, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Perri Davis
